The Easter Story Comic Strip – Expert

The Easter Story

Jesus was born in Bethlehem. He grew up in Nazareth with his Mother and Father. He became a carpenter.

When he was about 30 years old he began teaching the people. He also performed some amazing miracles.

Jesus asked twelve men to be his helpers. He called them disciples.

The leaders didn't like what Jesus was doing. They wanted him arrested.

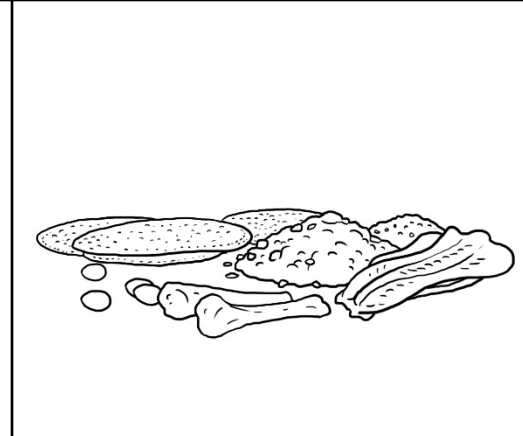

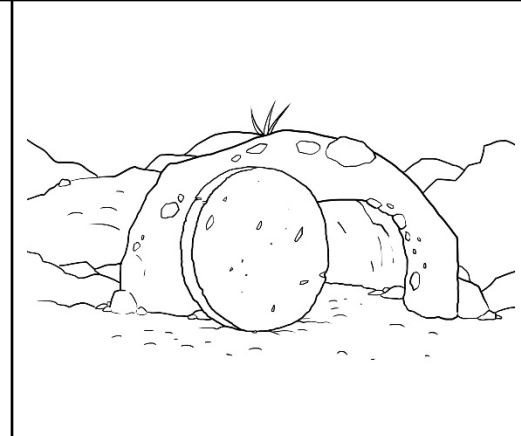

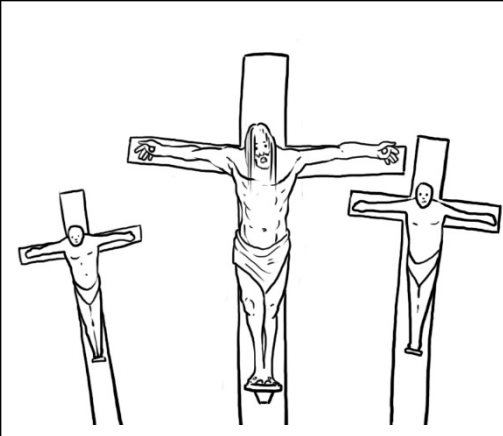

One of the disciples called Judas told the leaders about Jesus and he was arrested.

Many of the disciples were frightened and ran away. Peter was so scared he told people that he did not know Jesus.

Jesus was sentenced to death. The soldiers took him to a hill called Golgotha.

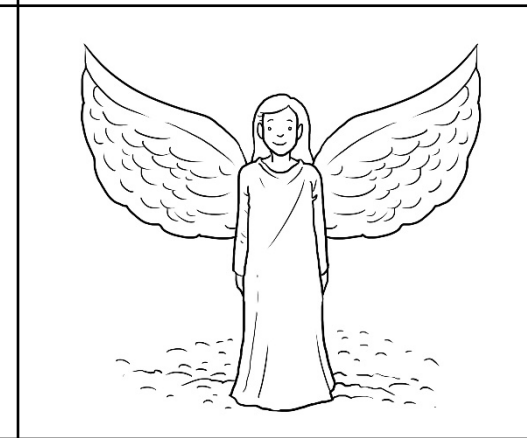

There, they nailed him to a cross, next to two other thieves. People laughed at Jesus and called him names.

The sky began to get dark. Jesus shouted, 'My God, My God, why have you left me?' Then he hung his head and died.

A soldier said, "Surely this was the Son of God." Jesus was put into a tomb and a stone was rolled across the entrance.

The people began to celebrate Passover which is a feast to remember their escape from Egypt many years ago.

When the Passover was over Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Salome went to prepare the body for burial.

When they arrived the stone had been rolled away and the body was gone. An angel was sat there instead. He said, "Go tell your friends."

On the way back, Mary bumped into a man she thought was the gardener. It was Jesus, he was risen from the dead.
