

Brahma

twinkl.co.uk

Ganesh

twinkl.co.uk

Shiva

twinkl.co.uk

Hindus believe that this god is the creator of the universe. He has 4 heads and grew inside a lotus.

twinkl.co.uk

Hindus believe this god helps people overcome their problems by granting them wisdom and strength.

twinkl.co.uk

He is the Hindu god of death and destruction. Hindus believe he is the source of good and evil and is part of the main trinity of Hindu gods.

twinkl.co.uk

Vishnu

twinkl.co.uk

Lakshmi

twinkl.co.uk

Rama

twinkl.co.uk

He is the Hindu god that preserves the universe and people. Hindus believe he saved his followers by appearing to them in other forms.

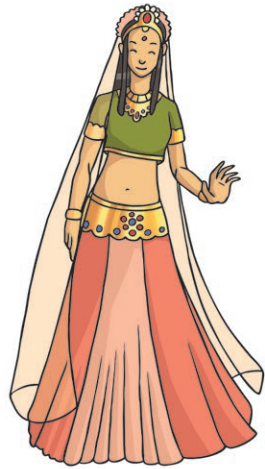

twinkl.co.uk

This Hindu god is the wife of Vishnu and travels on a lotus flower. She is the Hindu goddess of wealth and success.

twinkl.co.uk

He is seen as the ideal man, son, king and husband for Hindus. They believe he is the 'perfect' avatar of Vishnu

twinkl.co.uk

Sita

twinkl.co.uk

Indra

twinkl.co.uk

Saraswati

twinkl.co.uk

She is actually an incarnation of the goddess Lakshmi. Hindu women look to her as a role model, partly because she is a beautiful, loyal wife.

twinkl.co.uk

Hindus believe this god is the king of the gods and protects people and animals. They also believe he is kind, being generous to his worshippers.

twinkl.co.uk

She is the Hindu goddess of knowledge, music, arts, wisdom and learning. She also helps Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva.

twinkl.co.uk