

Overlap pages here

The image features a minimalist architectural drawing of a house's exterior. The facade is divided into sections by black horizontal and vertical lines. The top section is light orange, the middle section is white, and the bottom section is grey. On the left side, there are two sets of double doors; the top set is grey with a brown frame, and the bottom set is brown with a grey frame. Large, bold, green letters spelling "Open" are superimposed on the white section of the facade. The letters have a thick black outline and a white fill. To the right of the word "Open", there is a vertical text "Overlap pages here".

Open

Overlap pages here

