

Writing a

Play Script

Include a cast list with a short description of each character.

Use a colon after the character's name.

Use the present tense.

Start a new line for each speaker.

Add dialogue after the colon but don't use inverted commas!

Write a scene number, with a short description of the setting.

Write the characters' names on the left.

Use a narrator to briefly set the scene (optional).

Include stage directions in brackets.