

Food was rationed from January 1940.

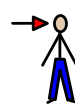

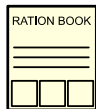

To make sure people had enough food ration books were given to people.

The Minister of Food made sure everyone had enough food by rationing food. He helped people to grow their own food.