

RE

People of Faith

Rabbi Jonathan Sacks

Aim

I can explore Rabbi Jonathan Sacks' beliefs.

Success Criteria

- I can identify the core beliefs of Rabbi Jonathan Sacks.
- I can explain how his beliefs are reflected in his life.

Rabbi Jonathan Sacks

In 2009, he joined the House of Lords in Parliament.

London

A map of the United Kingdom is overlaid on the background illustration of the House of Lords. The map is colored in shades of green and red. A red circle with a white center is positioned over the southeast coast of England, with a red arrow pointing downwards from the center of the circle to the map. Below the circle is a blue rectangular box containing the word "London" in white text.

Interfaith Dialogue

Rabbi Sacks is famous for becoming friends with people of different faiths.

Interfaith Dialogue

“We have to learn to speak to those with whom we wish to live.”

Who do you play outside with?
Who do you go to the library with?
Who do you go to the store with?
Who do you go to the shopping mall with?

Interfaith Dialogue

“We have to learn to speak to those with whom we wish to live.”

Why does Rabbi Sacks think it's important to speak to people of different religions?

Respecting Our Differences

★ Respecting Religious Differences

Who do you see when you go shopping?

Who do you like to shop with?

"We have to learn to speak to those whom we wish to live."

Who do you play with outside?

Who do you go to school with?

Explain what you think is meant by this quote in your own words:

★★ Respecting Religious Differences

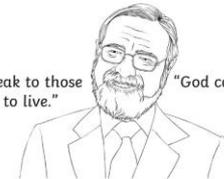

"We have to learn to speak to those with whom we wish to live."

Explain what you think is meant by this quote in your own words:

Why does Rabbi Sacks believe that we should respect each other's beliefs?

Describe ways that people can show respect for other people's beliefs:

★★★ Respecting Religious Differences

"We have to learn to speak to those with whom we wish to live."

"God cannot be reduced to a single faith or language."

Explain what you think is meant by these quotes in your own words:

Why does Rabbi Sacks believe that we should respect each other's religions?

Why do some people find it hard to respect other people's beliefs?

Describe ways that people can show respect for other religions:

Respecting Our Differences

“We have to learn to speak to those with whom we wish to live.”

Why do you think there are lots of people with different beliefs?
Do you think everyone should believe in different things?

Aim

I can explore Rabbi Jonathan Sacks' beliefs.

Success Criteria

- I can identify the core beliefs of Rabbi Jonathan Sacks.
- I can explain how his beliefs are reflected in his life.

twinkl